

STANDARD FORM NO. 64

CONFIDENTIAL

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Chief, Plans and Policy Staff

DATE: 8 February 1956

FROM : Chief, Intelligence School

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 6
1 February - 8 February 1956

I. SIGNIFICANT ACTIVITIES

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

25X1
25X1

25X1
25X1
The morning sessions of the eight-day course, held in Alcott Hall, comprise a series of lecture-discussions; the afternoons are devoted to individual programs of orientation and briefing arranged by the various branches and sections [redacted] is the Course Supervisor, assisted by [redacted] of OO/C.

25X1
25X1
2. Intelligence Writing No. 5 began 6 February with 11 enrolled: 3 OSI; 2 OCI; 2 ORR; 1 OCR/GR; 1 OO/FBID; 1 Commo; 1 OTR. [redacted] are the instructors.

3. The closing address in IPM No. 10 last Friday was delivered by the Inspector General, Mr. Lyman Kirkpatrick, in the Director's Conference Room, Administration Building. Mr. Kirkpatrick's frank discussion of the plans, policies, and problems of the Agency was informative and inspirational. One student, a guest from ONI, commented that the talk did more to boost his morale than anything that he had heard during five years in military intelligence.

25X1
4. [redacted] briefed the Training Liaison Officers of the DD/P at their meeting 3 February on the results of the reading training programs. They were especially interested to learn that the average DD/P employee spends slightly more than four hours per day reading, and that we offer individual analysis services for overseas employees who are on temporary duty in Washington.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

- 2 -

25X1 5. Six engineers from the Engineering Division, TSS, including the Division Chief, [redacted] took reading tests on Monday, 6 February. Eight employees of the division are interested in taking the Reading Improvement Course, but because they constantly travel in 25X1 the middle of the week it is impossible for them to take the course as scheduled. To meet their request, a course will be scheduled on Monday and Friday afternoons, 19 March to 18 May, if it is possible for the Reading Improvement Branch to handle the additional work load.

6. The Reading Improvement Branch has received for examination a new test in reading flexibility prepared by Dr. George Spache and Dr. Paul Berg of the University of Florida. They propose to make sufficient copies available for class use in return for a listing of test scores. The Branch has agreed to cooperate in giving the test and supplying the data. No security information is involved.

25X1 7. Mr. Edward Fulker, Chief of the Air Force Reading Courses, has asked [redacted] to participate in planning and presenting a series of sixteen television programs on WRC-TV, beginning at the end of February.
The presentations will be made by representatives of Georgetown, George 25X1 Washington, American, and Catholic Universities and the Air Force. Miss [redacted] agreed to participate in planning the programs, but declined to make a personal appearance. Her role will be entirely behind the scenes.

25X1 8. [redacted] presented a lecture on "The Soviet Use of Economic Weapons" at the Foreign Service Institute 2 February.

25X1 9. [redacted] of the Audio Aids 25X1 Section/LSB recently assisted [redacted] in the reorganization and arrangement of CWC materials stored in the vault in Alcott Hall. Their cheerful cooperation was much appreciated.

CONFIDENTIAL